Somebody's Mother's chocolate sauce is searching for the wit and wisdom of mothers for a Mother's Day contest.

Sons and daughters can enter their best Mom quote at www.somebodysmothers.com.

"We want to see anything your mom has said that's funny, sassy, witty or wise," said Lynn Lasher, founder of Somebody's Mother's chocolate sauce. "And if you heard something great from another mom, like Claire Huxtable or your hairdresser's cousin's dog-walker's mom, we'd love to hear about that, too."

Each jar of the chocolate sauce currently features a lid sticker with one of seven sayings of famous mothers. The contest's winning submission will be printed on new jar tops. Winners will also receive a dozen containers of the topping.

Winners will be selected by Lasher on May 7.
