Somebody's Mother's Offers Free Shipping for the Holidays

HOUSTON, TEXAS --- Somebody's Mother's Chocolate Sauce will offer free shipping on all of its products for the month of December in celebration of the holidays, said founder Lynn Lasher.

The discount is applicable toward the company's individual jars of chocolate sauce, caramel sauce, or white chocolate sauce with Pear William, or either of the company's gift boxes and can be redeemed at <http://store.somebodysmothers.com>.

The all-natural and preservative-free sauces come in jars that feature a lid sticker, "Lidlit," which displays quotes about motherhood from famous persons.

Founded in 2005 in Houston, Texas, Somebody's Mother's Chocolate Sauce originated as a business model for Lasher's three children.
